Principals Report

- Remembrance Day assembly will be a combination of indoor and outdoor events.
- Christmas concert to happen in the gym. Dec 5th and 7th. Will do a food bank and Sally Ann toy drive at concerts.
- School will have annual giving tree to donate toys.
- SD23 family affordability fund is available to those who would like to apply for school fee assistance.
- New ELL teacher at SLE (English Language Learner) has 26 students. Funds for resources requested. Jackie motioned $200 be given for this request, Christina second, all in favour, passed.

Treasurers Report

- Accounts reviewed.
- Halloween Dance brought in $1648, including donations of $602 at the door, $996 from M&M meats and $50 from Kettle Corn.

PAC President/ Fundraiser report

- Next year for Halloween dance may consider wrist bands/ tickets to help with crowd control. Some mentioned volume of music was too high. Food trucks were a great success.
- Purdy's fundraiser is currently happening.
- Growing smiles fundraiser on now by Grades Fives.
- Kernels fundraiser will be done by Grades Fives as well.
- Year-end party. Having trouble getting permits for inflatables. May need to rethink year end party ideas.
- Christmas Fair coming soon. School access 1-2:30, public access 2:30-7. Will have flyers available soon. All tables sold out for this event.

Hot Lunch

- Some new volunteers needed
- Friendly reminder that once hot lunch is ordered it also must be paid for to receive it.

Motion to adjourn was made at 5:00pm and was passed unanimously.
